Grade 11

Theme 10 Values and Norms

Test 1

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Choose the best answer for each question.

1. Both kindness ____ honesty are important in a friendship.
   A) or B) nor C) and
2. You can send your suggestion either by email ____ through the online form.
   A) and B) or C) nor
3. Neither the manager ____ the assistant was available.
   A) or B) nor C) but
4. She is not only patient ____ also respectful.
   A) but B) and C) nor
5. Both of the volunteers ____ ready to begin.
   A) is B) was C) are
6. He neither shouted ____ blamed anyone.
   A) nor B) or C) and
7. Returning money that is not yours shows ____.
   A) honesty B) jealousy C) impatience
8. Treating people fairly means ____.
   A) always favouring close friends
   B) ignoring everyone's different needs
   C) giving them a fair chance without prejudice
9. 'In my view, we should listen before judging.' '____'
   A) I agree. We should judge before listening.
   B) I agree. We may not know the whole situation.
   C) The train arrived at platform two.
10. Which phrase introduces a polite disagreement?
    A) You're absolutely right in every way.
    B) I couldn't agree more.
    C) I see your point, but I think there is another possibility.

Grade 11

Theme 10 Values and Norms

Choose the best answer for each question.

11. A person who helps others without expecting a reward is ____.
    A) arrogant B) altruistic C) dishonest

12. The hall is neither large nor bright. This means it is ____.
    A) not large and not bright B) large and bright C) large but not bright

13. We can meet either on Tuesday or on Thursday. This offers ____.
    A) two alternatives
    B) two events that must both happen
    C) no possible meeting time

14. The club welcomes not only students but also parents. Who can join?
    A) Students and parents B) Only students C) Only parents

15. 'Why should we respect different opinions?' '____'
    A) Because everyone must have exactly the same experience.
    B) Because disagreement makes every discussion impossible.
    C) Because listening can help us understand other people's experiences.

Read the text and answer questions 16 to 20.

The Queue at the Library

During a busy afternoon, a library visitor asked to move to the front of a queue because he had an appointment. Some people agreed, while others explained that they also had limited time. The librarian listened to both sides. She kept the queue in order but showed the visitor a self-service machine that could handle his return immediately. Later, a student group discussed the incident. They agreed that kindness did not always require changing a rule. Looking for another workable solution could respect both an individual's needs and the people already waiting.

16. Why did the visitor ask to move to the front?
    A) He worked at the library.
    B) He had an appointment.
    C) He had already used the machine.

17. Why did some people object?
    A) They also had limited time.
    B) They wanted the library to close.
    C) They had no books to return.

18. What did the librarian do?
    A) Sent everyone home
    B) Kept the queue in order and offered another method
    C) Let all visitors ignore the queue

19. What did the group conclude about kindness?
    A) It always requires removing every rule.
    B) It means agreeing with the loudest person.
    C) It can involve finding an alternative solution.

20. Which value does the librarian's response illustrate?
    A) Rewarding people who refuse to listen
    B) Considering fairness and individual needs together
    C) Avoiding responsibility for all decisions